National League Park, Philadelphia, October 13. — The Boston Americans are the world's champions of 1915. The Red Sox defeated the Philadelphia Nationals 5 to 4 today in a game which was nip and tuck until the finish. Twice the Phillies took the lead only to be retired and Harry Hooper finally clinched it for the American League Champions by smashing a home run into the right center stands.

It was Hooper's big black bludgeon that put the Red Sox across winners the Californian smashing out two home runs in the game.

Duffy Lewis was another hero in Boston, his home run cloud in the eighth inning sending in a run ahead of him and tying the score when it looked like a Philadelphia victory.

Philadelphia, October 13. — The special train carrying the Boston and Philadelphia teams and many rooters from Boston to Philadelphia for the fifth game of the world series, was delayed by engine trouble at Belvidere, N. J., this morning, and for a while it was thought the game would be delayed in starting. However, the train arrived at 11:15 a. m. and the game was started on time.

National League Park, Philadelphia, October 13.—A threat of serious delay or possible postponement of the fifth game of the world series here today served only to the end to whet the appetite of more than 20,000 faithful Philadelphia fans who crowded into the little park to encourage the home team in its last stand against the Red Sox of Boston who went into today's contest with the count of games 3 to 1 in their favor.

A victory for the Phillies meant a prolongment of hostilities with tomorrow's battle staged in Boston.

Delay of the special train bearing the two teams in arriving caused rumors of a serious accident and a consequent delay in the series. Eventually, however, word came that all was well and that the game would start on time.

The Phillies were first on the playing field today and got a rousing cheer of welcome from the crowded bleachers. The local fans fully believed the Alexander would turn back the invaders and that some of "Gavvy" Cravath's long hits which went for outs on the vast playing field of Boston would develop into home runs today.

There was every early evidence of a fiercely fought game. The Phillies had their backs to the wall and in Alexander they placed their hope of turning the tide that set against them last Saturday when they began to take the short end of three successive 2 to 1 scores.

Carrigan, confident almost to the degree of arrogance, said today that anyone of his long string of airtight twirlers could pull out a victory and end the series. The wise followers of the game seemed to take it for granted that George Foster would be Carrigan's selection.

The box occupied last Saturday by President Wilson, was decorated today for Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania.

The playing field was lightning fast; far faster than the one in Boston.

Mayer Pitches.

First Inning — A murmur of surprise went up when Mayer was announced as Philadelphia's pitcher. Hooper singled to center on the first ball pitched. Scott fouled out to Luderus, trying to sacrifice. Speaker forced Hooper at second, Luderus to Bancroft. Speaker was out stealing; Burns to Bancroft. Speaker kicked on the decision. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Stock was hit by a pitched ball which nipped him on the shoulder. A large floral horseshoe was presented to Grover Cleveland Alexander by admiring friends just before the game. Bancroft singled to left, Stock going to second. Paskert bunted safely and the bases were filled. The Boston players made a kick on

RUSSIANS AGAIN DEFEAT TEUTONS

Slavs Pierce Last Line of Austrian Defense on the Stripa in Galicia---- Bulgaria Formally Declares War Upon Serbia After Months of Diplomatic Clashes---Attitude of Greece Not Pleasing to Allies---Teutons Are Still Advancing.

By Associated Press.

Petrograd, October 13, via London.—Another striking victory has been won by the Russians on the southern front in eastern Galicia. They have pierced the last line of Austrian defenses on the Stripa river and stormed one of the strongest points on the Austro-German right flank.

London, October 13. — Already Bulgarian troops have advanced to the attack on the Serbian flank but news regarding the progress of the fighting on the Bulgarian-Serbian border was lacking this afternoon.

Greece is maintaining her attitude of armed neutrality. Athens advices state that the Greek government does not consider the existing situation a purely Balkan affair, and that therefore Greece is not bound by her treaty with Serbia to come to the latter's aid in resisting the present Bulgarian attack.

The Teutonic advance in Serbia south of the Danube is admittedly progressing, although apparently with no great speed. The Serbians assert that the attacks on the Save front are being repulsed.

Berlin, via London, October 13.—The Austro-German invasion of Serbia is making progress, the War Office announced today, although the Serbians by their resistance are interfering to some extent with the advance. A village and other positions south of Belgrade have been captured.

London, October 13. — Bulgaria has declared war on Serbia, says a Central News dispatch from Paris.

The decision of Bulgaria, the twelfth nation to enter the war, to join the ranks of the belligerents on the side of Germany, Austria and Turkey, was reached only after a diplomatic duel waged for months between representatives of the Teutonic allies and the quadruple entente.

Each side offered tempting inducements in an effort to gain another ally, but the Bulgarian government finally decided Germany and her friends had made the higher bid.

Bulgaria is rated as one of the most powerful of the Christian Balkan states. Her army on a peace footing is only about 56,000, but in time of war 300,000 men.

Since the second Balkan war, in which Bulgaria fought Greece, Serbia and Montenegro, after the victory of all four nations against Turkey, Bulgaria has been isolated to a certain extent from the other Balkan states.

When peace was finally restored, Bulgaria was compelled to relinquish a large part of the territory she had gained in the first war.

The ill feeling thus engendered made it doubtful whether Bulgaria would consent to enter the present war on the side of Serbia and Montenegro.

She steadfastly refused to abandon neutrality unless assured of territorial concessions which would enable her to realize her national aspirations.

Chief of these was to regain those sections of Macedonia, populated chiefly by Bulgars, which now belong to Serbia and Greece.

Bucharest, October 13. — A dispatch from the Bulgarian frontier states that a declaration of war against Serbia will be posted throughout Bulgaria tonight.

Paris, October 13. — Foreign Minister Del Casse resigned today. His resignation was accepted.

The resignation was announced at noon today after the cabinet ministers had held a meeting under the presidency of Antone Poincare.

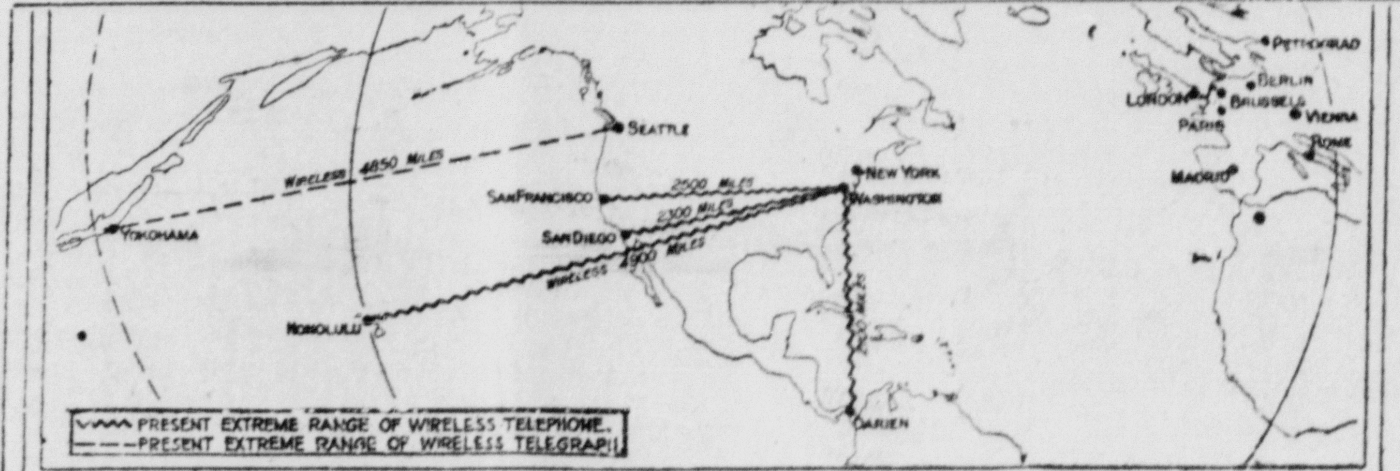

His resignation was due to ill health.

BULGAR ADVANCE FROM THE REAR

Serbian Capital Objective of Two Armies.

THIRD TO ASSAIL RAILROAD

King Ferdinand's Forces Cross Into Serbian Territory at Three Points. Austro-German Army of Invasion Making Headway, According to Berlin—Serbians Offering Stubborn Resistance—Allies Promise Help.

London, Oct. 13.—It is officially announced that the Bulgarian forces have crossed into Serbian territory from three points.

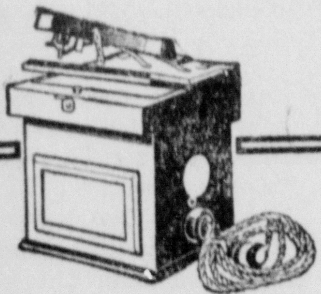

Two of the Bulgar armies are evidently destined to march on Nish, the present capital, while the third, having entered Serbia further to the north, is aiming to cut the Orient railway at Paratchin, thus leaving the forces resisting the German invasion without a line for supplies.

Semendria, on the Danube, has been captured by the Germans. Both the town and the fortress were captured after bitter fighting on the part of the Serbs, who held out as long as military discretion would permit.

In addition to the capture of Semendria, the Berlin war office announces that the Austro-German armies of invasion are everywhere making favorable progress. News from other sources, however, indicates that at some points the invaders are being held up by the Serbs, who are fighting with their traditional heroism. The advance of the German army, which has sought to cross the Drina on the western side of Serbia, seems to be especially slow.

But the all important fact in the Balkan situation lies in the news that Bulgaria has at last attacked Serbia, threatening her communications from the south, and in the lack of news respecting reinforcements for the Serbs, there is still no official announcement from any of the entente powers that adequate measures have been taken to relieve Serbia. Great hope, however, is attached to a statement made by the French premier, M. Viviani, in the chamber of deputies, that Russia will attack Bulgaria and that France and England will go to help Serbia. "Our principal occupation," said the premier, "is the defense of our front and the liberation of our territory. France and England, however, will go to help Serbia."

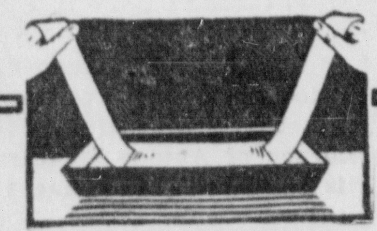

The foreign office handed the Bulgarian minister to London his passports, and announcement was made that all diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Bulgaria have been broken off.

FINISH FIGHT IS DEMANDED

New York, Oct. 13.—Miss Lucille Covington, who came here from Michigan to aid her attorney to prepare the evidence in her $100,000 breach of promise suit against Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, made what she declared was her first authorized statement on the case at the office of her attorney. She told a detailed story of the alleged wooing by the defendant and said that letters from the Rev. Dr. Hill expressing affection for her would be introduced in evidence at the trial.

Miss Covington, who is an attractive woman inclined to stoutness, declared that she was not alarmed by statements intimating that her actions prior to filing the suit made her amenable to prosecution.

"I am here for a fight to a finish," said Miss Covington. "There will be no compromise. Dr. Hill made love to me and asked me to be his wife repeatedly. I believed him, because he is a man of some charm, pleasing personality and a great deal of force."

Mexico City, Oct. 13.—Unable to combat with General Zapata and his band in the mountain fastnesses of the state of Morelos, General Gonzales, Constitutional commander here, will try to rout them out by dropping bombs on their hidden camps from aeroplanes.

General Gonzales has a squad of seven aeroplanes ready to make an aerial raid. W. Conrad Bonney, who is in charge of the flying squad, made three big flights over the city to get the machines in perfect order for the campaign.

This was an official holiday in celebration of the recognition of Carranza by the United States, and the Pan-Americans. Schools were closed and the government employees got the afternoon off. They paraded streets, over 1,000 strong, with banners and speeches praising Carranza. Many local officials sent telegrams to Secretary of State Lansing and members of the conference, congratulating them upon their reasonable attitude.

FOR HOME RULE IS FIRST PLAN

Federal Reserve Board Against McAdoo's Plan.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The federal reserve board did not accept a recommendation made by President Wilson, with the backing of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, for the establishment of joint agencies by the federal reserve banks in the leading cities of Central and South America. Mr. McAdoo had laid before the board a letter from President Wilson endorsing this proposal, and had supported it by his own arguments as presented in his recently published report on the Pan-American financial conference of last May.

The federal reserve board decided that the establishment of such agencies, instead of being undertaken by the federal reserve banks, ought to be left, for the present at least, to individual banking institutions. The board held that it would not be proper for the reserve banks to do pioneer work in Latin-American countries, inasmuch as such action might result in tying up reserve money in loans subject to the fluctuations of foreign exchange in these countries. It was suggested that when normal conditions had been restored in Europe, the reserve banks might possibly establish such joint agencies in foreign fields, where large discount markets exist and where the gold standard is established beyond question.

Bullet Wound in Heart.

Canton, O., Oct. 13.—The body of a young man, identity not known, with a bullet wound through his heart, was found last evening in the center of a dense woods just outside the city. Coroner Dennis said that the man evidently had been dead three days, and that circumstances clearly point to murder.

Prisoners Removed.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—For the first time in 56 years there is not a prisoner in the Hamilton county jail. This is not adduced as evidence that the world is growing better as the 100 jail prisoners were simply removed to the workhouse, for the antiquated old jail is to be torn down to make way for a modern one.

Press Files Protest.

Columbus, Oct. 13.—A committee representing the Ohio Associated Dailies appeared before the state medical board to protest against the requirements of a pledge "never to become an itinerant or advertising practitioner" from applicants for license under the new Platt-Elis law for the regulation of non-medical practitioners. G. W. C. Perry of Chillicothe, president of the association, was spokesman for the publishers. He argued that the board was exceeding its authority.

EX-PRESIDENT TALKS PLAINLY TO YOUNG MEN

New York, Oct. 13.—A six-year presidential term, the adoption of a read budget-making reform and the extension of the president's power of veto were ardently favored by ex-President William H. Taft in a lecture on "The Presidency, Its Powers, Responsibilities and Restrictions," at Columbia University. Mr. Taft urged a presidential term of six or seven years, and stated as his reason for his belief in a long single term, the increase in administrative efficiency that would result thereby. He singled out the new constitution of New York state as the finest piece of work in constitutional law yet devised.

Attacks on the Income Tax Act Are Resisted.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Heavier taxation on big incomes as a relief from the "disproportionate share" of government support borne by the poor under indirect taxation was defended by the government in a brief filed with the supreme court in the pending income tax cases.

The brief bears the names of Attorney General Gregory, Solicitor General Davis and Assistant Attorney General William Wallace, Jr., and represents months of study by the government's legal talent of all the various attacks on the income tax, the success of which attacks would reduce the government's income $82,000,000 a year.

"The ordinary system of indirect taxation upon consumption places upon the poor person a disproportionate share of the burden of government support," says the brief in reply to a charge of discrimination in the additional or sur tax on incomes of over $20,000. "Income taxation tends to shift the burden upward. It is undeniable that the greater the income the greater the ease with which the payment of taxes is met."

DISCOURAGING CANAL REPORTS

Washington, Oct. 13.—The war department received from Major General Goethals, governor of the Panama canal, a cablegram announcing that in view of the continued movements of the slides in Gaillard cut, it would be impossible to predict any date for the reopening of the canal. Governor Goethals advises the discontinuance of sailings via the Panama route until further notice, which he says will be given as soon as material is removed sufficient to insure stable conditions.

Officials here are considerably disturbed at the closing of the canal. Engineers assert that the excavation of Gaillard cut has disturbed the equilibrium of the masses of earth at that point and that there is nothing to be done but await the restoration of that equilibrium by the removal of more earth.

WOT'S THIS?

Washington, Oct. 13.—Thomas Riley Marshall of Indiana may not run on the ticket with Woodrow Wilson in the Democratic campaign of 1916. Friends of the vice president say he never asked for the honor, and is indifferent whether he is nominated again or not. When recently asked about the matter Mr. Marshall is reported to have replied that the only thing he regarded as certain was that President Wilson would be renominated. As for himself, he said he would not ask for a re-nomination.

It Pays to Excel

It pays to excel in one's life work no matter what particular one of the numerous opportunities offered may be chosen as the means for wresting a living from the world.

As an illustration of the truth of that statement attention is directed to the fact that at present there are forty-four husky young men—some of them mere boys so far as age is concerned—now battling, twenty-two on a side, for the highest honors in baseball.

These young men have paid strict attention to their work, have taken care of their health and been temperate in their manner of living. They have "played" base ball with all their talent and with all the energy and thought which they can command and as a reward for the excellence they have attained, nearly one hundred thousand people have paid admission to the Boston and Philadelphia ball parks to see the games.

On Tuesday the last game was played in which the players will participate in the proceeds and the final figures as to what each player will receive are now obtainable.

A total of one hundred and forty-four thousand and some odd hundred dollars will be divided among the players. Each player on the winning team will receive thirty-seven hundred and seventy-nine dollars and each player on the losing team will receive a little over twenty-five hundred dollars.

Liberal compensation—about five hundred dollars a day—for playing base ball.

That's true, but only the base ball players who excel in their work are able to gather in these princely sums.

The rule in base ball and in every other line of activity is the same. Attention to the work to be done—attaining excellence brings its big reward in honor and dollars as well.

It is satisfaction to excel and it also pays big dividends.

Reviving a Lost Art

Many of the young girls these days are employing their spare moments in the very profitable and refining work of knitting.

It is pleasing to see this lost art of knitting revived by the coming generation. The creations of the long knitting needles dexterously wielded by the dainty feminine hands have always been things of beauty and of practical use.

We of the older folks will never forget the old comforters, fascinators and pulse warmers in bright colored yarns, the product of grandmothers' or great aunts' needles. The long winter evenings of boyhood days when the older members of the fair sex of the family engaged themselves in making, out of yarn, the many wonderful articles of wearing apparel to protect loved ones against the cold are always fresh in the memory.

There is something so refining, so domestic, so quieting and restful to see the yarn woven into something that brings back those other days when people didn't live so fast and didn't want for so much.

Those who can remember when knitting was just passing out of style, when other fads were exciting, when other "work" more attractive was pressing forward to claim the attention of the younger folks, are pleased to see the old custom revived even though it may be only a fad.

It is not likely that the young girls will "stick to their knitting" as faithfully or as long as their grandmothers and great-grandmothers did in their girlhood days.

They are not compelled to either from necessity or to occupy their spare moments. But even for a time its refreshing to see the young girls making things to wear out of yarn and it's joy to see on the street new style scarfs made by the pretty girls who wear them.

The White House Wedding

Now that it is a settled fact that President Wilson is to be married the majority of the people are of the opinion that there is no need to wait until December.

The public is interested in the coming marriage. The public must, of necessity, hear and read a great deal about the ceremony, before and after the event has been duly solemnized, owing to the prominence of one of the contracting parties and therefore it is well to have it over and done with so that we can devote more time to the consideration of other matters of public concern.

An overwhelming majority of the people have given their consent to the marriage and as both the parties concerned seem to have arrived at an understanding, there seems no good reason for occupying so much space in the newspapers with all the details of the comings and goings of the happy couple.

The deep interest of the public with all the details of a wedding in the White House is pardonable and efforts on the part of the news gathering and news writing agencies to cater to that interest is also pardonable, but the supply of interesting details regarding even a White House wedding may grow burdensome if the wedding is too long postponed.

Poetry For Today

KEEP GOING.

Is the goal distant, and troubled the road,
And the way long?
And heavy your load?
Then gird up your courage and say,
"I am strong!"
And keep going.

Is the work weary, and endless the grind
And petty the pay?
Then brace up your mind
And say, "Something better is coming my way"
And keep doing.

Is the drink bitter life pours in your cup—
Is the taste gall?
Then smile and look up
And say, "God is with me whatever befall!"
And keep trusting.

Is the heart heavy with hope long deferred.
And with prayers that seem vain
Keep saying the word—
And that which you strive for you yet shall attain;
Keep praying.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in Nautilus.

Evidence piles up in Washington showing that the farmers of the country are expending their increased incomes on improvements. Not only are farming implements and machinery in extra demand, but all kinds of building material are bought liberally. The government is laying out vast sums to spread a knowledge of home economies in the farming districts, and it is gratifying to find that a spirit of improvement and progress is at work wherever the finances are favorable. When money taken from the land stays with the land instead of going into wildcat investments prosperity is assured.

Your judgment is good until you bet on it.

Luke McLuke Says

What doth it profit a man to attend a peace meeting and then roll home about 2 a. m. and find friend wife waiting up for him?

There are times a man starts things he can't finish. But the time he starts to make a fool of himself isn't one of them.

Maybe it is a good thing that so many men are poor writers. Good handwriting would only make bad spelling look worse.

Of course being poor has its drawbacks, but you do not have to sit up at night and watch for burglars, and you do not have to soak your mail in the bathtub every morning to fool the fellows who send you infernal machines.

A man will get mad and tell you to go to the devil, but a woman will smile at you and lead you there.

The man who has to dig for a living seldom thinks of the dignity of labor.

And what has become of the old fashioned man who, when he sat down to the table, tucked his napkin in his collar as if he were preparing to shave?

It is well understood that a man is an onery pup and that a woman is a defenseless creature. But it is a fact, nevertheless, that when a man and a married woman strike up a flirtation the man seldom starts the flirtation.

There are a lot of men in the world who imagine that a toothbrush is something that is manufactured exclusively for woman's use.

A man always wants to hit the little man who insults him. But if the man who insults him is a big man the man who has been insulted is willing to arbitrate the matter.

THE WASHINGTON SAVINGS BANK

This has been a good season for one-half of the people of this country, so to speak, to learn "how the other half lives." Tens and tens of thousands have passed their holidays traveling in America instead of going abroad. Although the scenery has charm sufficient to absorb all thought and attention, even that could not be reached without coming face to face with that homely country life which is the foundation of our national development. The people met with in the farm and mountain cottage and at the village market place and tavern are the ones whose thoughts and wishes, backed by votes, oftentimes sway our political destinies, to the dismay of city dwellers. Less and less as the years go by will it be true that the big cities sway the country. Country folks are naturally drawn to the city once or twice a year and learn their lesson. If city folks return the visits and profit by them there must arise a better understanding between the two elements.

The sudden subsidence of the Russian drama, or national assembly, at the command of the czar is believed by the believers in Russian progress to be only temporary. It is said to be a political necessity due to a war crisis. The bureaucracy and the legislators are at war with each other, but the autocracy, which is the czar and his counselors, is supposed to co-operate with the aims of the duma. At present it seems that the czar has his hands full in combating the bureaucracy, which is charged with the ill success of the Russian arms. A sweeping Russian victory over Germany is expected to give more power to the elbow of the autocracy and curtail the power of the bureaucracy. Then Russian patriots may rejoice.

Congress needs to be level headed in the new session. There are many home problems to be solved, and the people will naturally expect attention to their local interests first. Yet the foreign situation cannot be ignored. The foreign policy of the nation is up for adjustment and that of the administration for judgment. Narrow personal and party politics will be out of place more than ever because the world war has exalted our national responsibility as a world power, whether we like it or not. The time for a magnificent isolation is passed, and the ideals and principles which we have developed for home application must be emphasized before all nations.

A Safe Bank

We shall consider ourselves highly honored to number as customers those whose first requirements of their Bank is conservatism. From our foundation we have been rigidly and unswervingly conservative in the conduct of our affairs. We have been willing to grow slowly in order to sacrifice no element of strength in the process of growth. Rapidity of growth is no evidence of stability. A stalk of corn attains to a greater growth in one year than an oak sapling does in five—yet there are oaks that have endured for a thousand years. ONE WAY LEFT TO SOLVE UNION STATION PROBLEM

Granting of Route Desired By Complainants in Injunction Suit Would Result in Dismissal of Suit, It Is Claimed—Long Legal Battle May Be Fought.

What will become of the Union Station?

This is the question asked by hundreds of Washington citizens since the injunction suit filed Tuesday tied up work on the station and placed the proposal in tangle which may require months to unravel, and which may result in the temporary restraining order being made permanent.

No work has been done on the union station excavating since the mandate of the court went forth and under the statutes governing such cases, nothing can be done, it is claimed, which will allow the work to proceed, save the final dissolution of the injunction.

Meanwhile 30 days from the time of the filing of the petition is allowed for an answer, after which a date for hearing may be set, and there is probability that if the case is continued it will be months before a decision is reached.

However, it is pointed out, there is still a way of settling the affair, without the long legal battle which might result, and the one way is said to be the granting by council of the route desired by the complainants, when the suit would, in all probability, be withdrawn and the work upon the station could be resumed immediately thereafter.

The injunction suit was filed when council refused to grant the route through the corner of the Burke property, and thence east to Hinde street through the Mrs. Jane Davis property—the route desired by Mr. Pfeiffer and other Millwood residents, as a solution to the "missing link" problem.

Council, it will be recalled, decided upon the route through the Allen-Willis property and down Water street, and with some of the Millwood citizens contending for the other route mentioned, the long threatened split occurred and the injunction suit was filed.

WILL ORGANIZE AT ONCE IF FRANCHISE IS GRANTED

In connection with the deep interest being manifested in the request of thirteen well known citizens for a franchise for erecting equipment necessary to furnish light, heat and power in this city, the question has been raised as to whether or not council could legally grant a franchise to any but an incorporated company.

This question was placed before Attorney John Logan, who represents those behind the move for a new electric light and power concern in this city, and Mr. Logan stated that, in his opinion, council could legally grant a franchise to one person, persons or a corporation, and that it was the intention of the thirteen men to incorporate immediately after a franchise is granted.

Mr. Logan pointed out that to incorporate entails considerable expense, owing to the large capitalization which will be necessary, the rate to be paid the state being $1 per $1,000 for each thousand dollars of capitalization.

That it is the intention of the men to proceed with the organization and proper capitalization to place them in a position to bid on the new contract, was the information given out by Mr. Logan, this to be done if the franchise is granted as requested.

David C. Logan, president of the board of education, sinking fund trustees and city council respectively. This was before the state law was passed giving mayors the appointment of civil service commissioners.

Two years later Warner was reappointed by the same officials except that King Thompson was president of the board of education instead of W. O. Thompson.

When Mayor Karb tried on two different occasions to remove Charles E. Carter as chief of police, Warner presided over the Carter trials as president of the Civil Service Commission and it was his vote that kept Carter in his job as chief. Carter is now opposing Warner for mayor.

Warner is married and lives at 713 Wilson avenue. His wife was Victoria E. Thompson of Williamsport. They have two girls, Agnes and Mabel, aged 9 and 7 years.

SEQUEL TO CHARGE AGAINST FRANK LEE

Oliver Cox, of near Bainbridge, was taken into custody by Sheriff Jones Wednesday, after being located on the Storey farm in the western part of the county, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Hazel Lee, aged 16, whose sworn testimony landed her father, Frank Lee, in the Ohio Penitentiary last spring, upon a grave charge.

The accused man will face Probate Judge Allen, and owing to the youth of the girl, a long prison term may be the punishment meted out by the court.

FORMER LOCAL MAN IS GIVEN MUCH PUBLICITY

Charles T. Warner, candidate for the office of Mayor of Columbus and former well known resident of this city, is given the following mention in Tuesday's Columbus Citizen:

"Farmer boy, country school teacher and lawyer.

This is the history thus far of Charles T. Warner, only avowed non-partisan candidate for mayor of Columbus.

Warner is a Fayette county product. He will be 44 years old Oct. 6, this year. After leaving the farm he taught school seven years, went to Lebanon college and also to Ada.

At Ada he took geometry under Professor Willis, now governor. While at Ada he decided to study law. He completed his law studies under Judge Hidy at Washington C. H. and was admitted to the bar in 1898. He has been practicing in Columbus since.

Warner's first experience in politics was in 1908 when he was a Democratic candidate for common pleas judge of Franklin county. In 1910 when the new city civil service law went into effect, Warner was chosen along with W. S. Potter and W. F. Andrus to establish civil service in all branches of city government.

This commission was selected by W. O. Thompson, W. F. Huffman and

PROF. LEWIS IS ARRESTED IN ALABAMA

Prof. Charles Lewis, Superintendent of the New Vienna schools, and well known in this city who left his wife and children last spring and eloped with Miss Estella Hodson, daughter of Adolphus Hodson of Leesburg, has been arrested in Birmingham, Alabama, and is now being escorted back to Clinton county to face the most serious charge that can be placed against him.

The news of Lewis' arrest was contained in a brief telegram from Sheriff Ben South, of Wilmington, who Tuesday sent the following message to his wife:

"Caught Lewis on way to home near here."

Sheriff South learned of the fugitive's whereabouts by means of letters written by the girl whom Lewis had enticed from her home in Leesburg, to her mother. As soon as the information was in his hands he hurried to Birmingham, Alabama, with the above result.

Sheriff South will probably reach home with Lewis sometime Thursday, and will, in all probability, bring the runaway girl with him.

WILL HAVE PHONES READY NEXT MONTH

It is understood that unless something unforeseen arises to delay the work of installing the new automatic telephones in this city and county, that the new phones will be in use on or before November 15th, and possibly within the next 30 days.

The work of installing the phones, connecting them to the central equipment, arranging the numbers and preparing generally for the big shift from the old to the new system is moving forward slowly but surely, and has required a greater length of time than at first anticipated.

All material for the new directory which will be distributed before the change is made, will be compiled by October 20.

The change from the old system to the new will be made over night and due announcement as to when this will be done, will be made.

FAYETTE GATHERING RECORD APPLE CROP

Fayette countians are now busy harvesting what is pronounced one of the greatest apple crops in the history of the county, and for the first time in many years cellars will be well stocked with apples of the first grade.

In many of the orchards the crop is so heavy that great branches have been snapped off by the weight of the fruit, while in some instances trees have been split in twain and hopelessly ruined by the great weight upon the branches.

It is a common sight to see the ends of the lower branches resting upon the ground, with bushels of apples upon the ground and still fastened to the twigs.

Tens of thousands of bushels of winter apples will be picked in Fayette, and large quantities will be left to decay.

OLD AND NEW WAY TO TREAT CATARRH

Breathing a Germ Killing Air Endorsed by Actual Results.

The discovery of Hyomei has wrought a wonderful change in the treatment of catarrh.

Prior to three years ago the medicines ordinarily employed in the cure of this disease were drugs, sprays, lotions, etc. In some instances they benefitted, but the improvement was not lasting.

With Hyomei you take into the air passages of your throat and head a balsamic air that goes into the minutest cells, and should effectually kill all germs and microbes of catarrh. Its purpose is to enter the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood, and restore health to the whole system. Many astonishing testimonials have been received from those who have been helped by Hyomei.

A complete outfit is inexpensive and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment.

Perhaps the strongest evidence that can be given to doubters, is the fact that Brown's Drug Store have so much faith in Hyomei that they sell every package under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve.

MEMORIES OF THE PAST.

Congress Gaiters and Herdies and Carpet Bags and the Like.

A London journalist asks, "Where are those elastic side boots, beloved by the men and women of the sixties? He probably refers to the boots known in this country as "congress gaiters." Why "congress?" Countrymen visiting Washington thought that members of congress always drank congress water. Perhaps they did, undoubtedly they needed it. But did they necessarily wear congress gaiters? The true western statesman was proud of his leg boots. The popularity of the congress gaiter in this country was due to the ease with which it was put on. It was the shoe for fat men, for indolent persons, for those that were mentally down at the heel, discouraged and depressed.

Where are those shoes now? But what has become of all the herdies and where is Peter Herdie? Where are all the old fashioned carpet bags, the moss agate rings and sleeve buttons, the hair jewelry, the mustache cups and napkin bands? Where are the revolving casters that were once the center ornament of the dining room table? "What will you have from the cater?" Where are the clinking silver plated ice water pitchers, with gold lined goblets, that stood on the sideboard or on the table in the directors' room of a bank or office of some corporation? What an amazing amount of junk there must be in this world, including novels that were for a time prodigiously popular, serious books that were once called definite, final, epoch making.—Philip Hale in Boston Herald.

In Social Circles

The Browning Club held the first meeting of the year, Tuesday night, the department of History. Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, chairman, in charge of the program.

A quotation from Ralph Waldo Emerson offered a fitting motto, "What is our life but an endless fight of winged facts or events."

The new president, Mrs. Henness, gave charming greeting to the club, saying in part: "A Woman's Club is a school with many sides in character; moral intellectual and social—self culture is never real culture and club women have recognized the fact, clubs are working for living wages, better sanitary conditions, social purity and legal equality with man—the Browning Club is not behind and much is expected in the way of civic work."

The new president bespoke the full co-operation of the club in whatever work was desired and beneficial.

Delegates for the State Federation at Toledo are: President Mrs. Henness, Mrs. Josephine Kerr, Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter; alternates: Mrs. Marie Persinger and Mrs. Ada Jones.

A special appeal was given that the club should give aid for workers in the Blind Asylum.

Mrs. Hopkins, chairman of Historical department, spoke of the touches here and there which will make a historical field one of big interest.

Miss Ruth Reid gave a beautiful piano arrangement of "O Promise Me," by DeKoven.

The discovery of America was the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Marie Persinger, showing something of the early history of Christopher Columbus; his dreams of a new world and how he fought the way towards it and after seven years he made a voyage with three ships, a voyage without parallel in history.

Miss Goldie Baughn treated of old Virginia and Her Neighbors, introducing Sir Walter Raleigh and historical characters who discovered and named Pt. Comfort, James river, especial reference was made in the Cavaliers who were strong characters and left their mark on Virginia soil.

Mrs. Minnie Bush developed the Beginnings of New England; from the landing on Cape Cod, on to Martha's Vinyard and Buzzard Bay and there discouraged explorers. Later on John Smith started out, up the rocky coast of New England and through him and religious enthusiasm a success for a new country was reached which commercial effort failed to accomplish. These historical papers are new features but of interest to a club.

The date of the wedding of Louis Supowitz and Miss Rae Kauffman, of Washington C. H., has been announced for Sunday, October 24, at 5:30 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed in the Hotel Kensington, Cleveland, by a Rabbi of the Jewish Church, from Pittsburgh—the same divine who pronounced the ceremony for Mr. Supowitz's father and mother. After the wedding they will tour the East for a short time and on their return will establish a home in Wilmington, where the young man is a partner in the shoe department of the Syndicate. —Wilmington Journal.

Thirty three members of the Mary Boyd Hale Bible class thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon Kensington of Tuesday, with the basement dining room of the Presbyterian church.

prettily decorated with bitter sweet and fall flowers.

Light refreshments were served and sprays of bitter sweet presented as favors.

After the social hour Mrs. Mary Rogers gave an interesting report of the State Sunday School Convention in Columbus.

The annual election resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Josephine Kerr; vice-President, Mrs. Frank A. Miller; Treasurer, Mrs. Fred Hamm; Mrs. Coral Meiers, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Frank S. Jackson, Class Secretary.

Mrs. Alice Moorman charmingly entertained three tables of the younger matrons at Bridge Wednesday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Joseph Donnell of St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. John A. Logan gave an informal, but altogether pleasurable little luncheon of six covers, Tuesday for Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Creamer is leaving for the west the coming week.

Washington society circles will learn with interest of the engagement of Miss Jean Rodes, of Chillicothe, and Mr. Manning Coultrap, son of Prof. and Mrs. Coultrap of Athens, announced at a Kensington given by Mrs. John Clark.

The attractive bride-elect has frequently visited at the Glascock home in this city, being a niece of Mrs. Georgiana Glascock.

The nuptials will be celebrated early in January.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. Bert Spangler arrived from Salt Lake City, Utah the first of the week, called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Spangler.

RUMMAGE SALE DATE NOW SET

The Welfare Association has set the date for the fall Rummage Sale, on Friday, November the 5th.

The women of the association hope to make this the biggest rummage sale of many seasons and through it to provide for the many calls for help which are already coming in constantly.

If every woman would gather up all the clothing and various household articles that accumulate during fall house cleaning and often find their place in the rubbish pile, and hold them for the rummage sale, it will be an immense help. Anything of any kind will be appreciated by the indefatigable women of the Welfare Association.

ARRESTED HERE AND TAKEN TO LONDON

Robert Waters, residing near Mt. Sterling was placed under arrest by Sheriff Jones in this city today, who acted upon information received from Sheriff Chas. Welmer of Madison county.

Waters is said to be under indictment in Madison county for trouble growing out of driving an automobile, and it is understood that his machine struck another vehicle.

Sheriff Welmer arrived by automobile about 2:30 o'clock and took Waters back to London, to face the charge against him.

HE CUT CORN HERE AND THEN HE CUT UP

James Billshire, of Scioto county, suspected of stealing copper in Ross county, is being held in Chillicothe until a thorough investigation is made, and inquiry will likely be made of persons in this county where the man has recently been employed in cutting corn.

It is claimed that the man cut corn near this city and started home recently, expended his money for drink while in Chillicothe, and then went into the copper business on the German government plan, seizing all that he could lay hands on.

WONDERS OF THE ALPS.

Changes Nature Wrought to Uplift Their Towering Peaks.

Nothing in the world's history is more impressive than the story of the Alps. Ten or twelve million years ago, possibly far more, a long unseen line of weakness, a crack of fissure in the earth's crust, stretched away from France eastward hundreds of miles. On this line followed huge volcanic outbursts.

Next ensued a vast slow subsidence, which went on through geologic epochs until where Mont Blanc now rears its summit 15,780 feet was a sea fringing an old continent. Large rivers emptied into it. Deposits of mud, sand, gravel were laid one on another as the sinking went on until the layers became 50,000 feet, nearly ten miles, thick.

Then at last commenced a great uplifting: the struggling subterranean forces raised a huge load. For ages this went on until the rocks, crumbled, crushed, contorted, rose above the waters and continued to rise, forming lines of mountain chains and making Switzerland a tableland.

Every hour since then rain and snow, river, glacier and avalanche have been sculpturing into peaks and carving into lakes and valleys that vast platform with its recent sedimentary covering and primeval granite core.

The result is a land of unequal grandeur.—London Telegraph.

TRAINING THE FLEA.

How the Tiny Insect is Weaned From His Jumping Habit.

"The teaching of the flea to do any sort of trick is, of course, a tedious, difficult matter," said a flea trainer. "The first thing to do is to break it of its natural habit of jumping."

"One can see how necessary this is when one considers the flea is less than one-eighth of an inch in length and has a jump of three feet—300 times its own length. If a six foot man had the same leaping power he could make leaps of 1,800 feet, so that when a flea has the advantage of one leap he is good as gone forever. My apparatus for jump breaking is a round glass ball. I confine him in this for three weeks. I look through this ball, touch it, flash lights into it, talk, do everything to let the flea accustom himself to my presence. At first he will jump and jump. He strikes against the curved walls and gets bruised. After a time, and I find three weeks to be ample, the flea gets to know me, and he also gets to know that it is less painful to crawl than to jump and get bruised.

"The flea cannot differentiate between transparent glass and no glass, so that when I take him from the ball he still strikes this peculiar obstruction and so he doesn't jump. So, you see, a flea must have some reasoning power somewhere, but I am in no position to say where it is located. That is why I have to pick fleas up with tweezers and put them on my arm when I want to feed them. They don't dare to jump on me."—Kansas City Star.

LADIES WIN BY BIG VOTE OF NEWS MEN

New York, Oct. 13.—The Literary Digest, has taken a poll of the press of the United States on the question of woman suffrage and the results show that "the ayes have it."

Letters were sent to 1000 papers in all parts of the country requesting that they answer two questions—one to determine the editorial attitude towards the proposition and the other to discover the sentiment of the community represented. A total of 526 replies were received and every state was represented.

The personal views of the editors were shown in the following vote: Affirmative, 391; negative, 97; undecided, 38. The sentiment of communities was reflected in this vote: Favorable, 237; negative, 156, and undecided 133.

BLANKET SPREAD TO WARN THEM

Columbus, Oct. 13.—General endorsement of the redemption by the Willis legislature of party pledges and approval of and confidence in the Willis administration, was voted by the Republican state central committee, which met at state headquarters. The blanket indorsement of laws enacted to carry out party pledges covered the McDermott liquor license decentralizer, but the license law was not mentioned specifically.

The Democratic state organization a week ago practically made a party issue of the license referendum by praising the Greenlund law and decrying the McDermott law, though not promising to make a fight for the Greenlund law.

RESOURCEFUL MOTHS.

They Found a Way to Cross the Fruit Growers' Barriers.

England's winter moth is one of the greatest pests with which the fruit growers of that country have to contend. It begins to appear in October, and the female, whose wings are very short and quite unadapted to flight, climbs the trunks of the fruit trees and deposits her eggs. These hatch out in the spring, and the caterpillars soon devour the young leaves. Heretofore it has been comparatively easy to combat the ravages of the pest. Seeing that the female is unable to fly, fruit growers place bands of a sticky substance round each tree. The female, in climbing the trunk, comes to the band and is held fast.

But a wonderful thing has happened, says the Manchester (England) Guardian. In recent years the female moth has been found from time to time above the band, and how she got there was a mystery. Finally, however, an entomologist expert unveiled it. He saw the male and female moths together above the band on the tree—the male evidently having just deposited the female.

There appears to be little doubt, adds the Guardian, that in this we have a remarkable adaptation to circumstances. The female cannot fly, but the male can, and it would seem that he had flown to the higher part of the tree, carrying his wife upon his back. This is one of the most striking discoveries in natural history and is creating much interest among nature students.

A CURIOUS HISTORY.

The Life of Sir William Cavendish, With a Comment by Pepys.

Sir William Cavendish, known in English history as the first Duke of Newcastle, was commander of King Charles I.'s first royal army in his contest with Cromwell. Sir William's second wife, the Duchess Margaret, wrote a life of her husband, in which she depicted him as a "most illustrious prince" and in every respect the pink of perfection.

The work was supposed to be entirely authentic and truthful, for Sir William himself assisted in its preparation. It was published early in 1667, and many complimentary copies were sent out, including one to the officials of St. John's college, Cambridge university. In acknowledging its receipt they wrote:

"Your excellency's book will not only survive our university, but hold date even with time itself, and incontinently this age by reading your book will lose its barbarity and rudeness, being made tame by the elegance of your style and manner." But old Samuel Pepys was not quite so favorably impressed. In his celebrated "Diary," under date of March 18, 1667, he made this entry: "Staid at home reading the ridiculous history of my Lord Newcastle, wrote by his wife, which shows her to be a mad, conceited, ridiculous woman and he an ass to suffer her to write what she writes to him and of him."—Exchange.

RUSS RESIST STUBBORNLY

Austrian Lines Along the Strya River in Eastern Galicia Reported Pierced by the Czar's Forces—Drain on Russia's Financial and Military Resources Telling, According to London Writer.

London, Oct. 13.—The capture of Illuxt, west of Dvinsk and on the Dvinsk-Libau railroad, is announced by the Berlin war office.

The capture of the city marks an important headway in Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's enveloping movement around Dvinsk, as the Russian forces west of that important railroad intersection have been for many weeks the most stubborn and most successful obstacle in the road to the city's capture.

Previous to the report of Illuxt's fall, Berlin announced the storming of a Russian position west of that place over a front of fifteen miles, capturing 300 Russians, including three officers and a machine gun.

On the southeastern theater of war, however, the Russians, according to an official statement issued at Petrograd, have broken through the Austrian lines along the Strya river, in eastern Galicia, north of the Roumanian border, capturing more than 2,000 soldiers, 60 officers and many guns. The advance is being pushed vigorously, the Russian war office asserts.

A gloomy picture of the situation in Russia as a result of the drain upon her financial and military resources is drawn by the Petrograd correspondent of the Times, who says in part: "Russia never expected the war to last longer than six months. She had sufficient money, an abundance of shells and a superfluity of men for such a war, but was not prepared for so prolonged and strenuous a struggle. She strove hard to meet the demands for munition, but she possesses neither the industrial background, the skilled hands, nor the industrial mobility to support her army adequately. She must depend on outside help and has to buy from Japan and the United States or elsewhere. Thus the problem becomes largely financial. Russia's cases in men are much greater than generally supposed."

FAKED VENTRILOQUISM.

The Deception Made Possible by the Loud Speaking Telephone.

A great deal of ventriloquism is not ventriloquism at all. In fact, the modern wonder in this line of pleasant and deceptive art needs to have none of the old time ventriloquists' ability at all. He may—and often does—stand on the opposite side of the stage from his manikin and puff a cigar quite contentedly, to the amazement of the audience. The dummy answers with a ready line of repartee, delivered in stentorian tones. Nor is that all, for he turns and twists his head, waves his arms, kicks up his feet and otherwise acts in a very lifelike manner.

The secret of the dummy's voice is the loud speaking telephone and of his actions various electro magnets. As may be guessed, both are operated by some one off the stage. In order to produce all the desired effects the dummy figure is fitted inside with a loud speaking telephone receiver, with the horn or large mouthpiece pointing toward the audience. The receiver is connected with a special transmitter in an anteroom some distance away. An ordinary operator's breast transmitter is also concealed in the body of the dummy, so that whatever is said by the ventriloquist on the stage is transmitted to the operator in the anteroom, enabling him to speak for the dummy at the proper time.—Argonaut.

O'Laughlin's decision at first which was close. The stands were in an uproar as Cravath came to bat but a double play followed as Foster took Cravath's grounder and threw to Thomas. Stock was out at the plate and Thomas then threw out Cravath at first. Bancroft and Paskert scored on Luderus' double to left center. Whitted fled out to Speaker. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Second Inning—Hoblitzell was out, Luderus to Mayer. Bancroft threw out Lewis at first then Gardner hit a long two bagger to right center, the ball bouncing nearly to the top of the fence. Six inches higher and Gardner would have had a home run. Gardner scored on Barry's Texas Leaguer to left. Thomas singled to center, Barry going to second. Foster popped out to Luderus. One run, three hits, no errors.

Niehoff fanned on three pitched balls. Burns sent up a high fly to Gardner. Mayer fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Hooper Hits Homer.

Third Inning—Hooper led off with a home run into the center field bleachers. Scott fled out to Paskert. Speaker shot a hot single to right. On the Boston grounds it would have been a three base hit or a home run. Boston's hitting was too much for Mayer and Captain Luderus replaced him with the left handed pitcher Rixey. Hoblitzell was withdrawn and Gainer batted in his place to play first base for the visitors. A double play followed, Bancroft taking Gainer's grounder, touched second forcing Speaker, and then threw out Gainer at first. One run, two hits, no errors.

Gardner threw out Stock at first, Bancroft fled out to Hooper but Paskert put a single over second. Cravath up. Paskert was out steal- ing, Thomas to Scott. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning—Lewis out on a fly to Whitted. Gardner walked. Rixey threw a very wide curve to Barry who struck and missed. Barry forced Gardner at second, Stock to Niehoff. Thomas fled out to Cravath. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Luderus Hits Homer.

Cravath struck out, Luderus scored on a home run drive over the right field fence. The crowd gave him an ovation as he crossed the plate. Whitted fled out to Gardner. Niehoff singled to center for his first hit of the series. Burns singled to right, sending Niehoff to third. Niehoff scored when Gardner, re- trieval Hooper's long throw to the fence, made a wild throw home and Burns went to second. Gardner threw out Rixey at first. Two runs, three hits, one error.

Fifth Inning—Foster led off with a single over short. Hooper up and was hit by a pitched ball. Foster was almost picked off at second by Burns' line throw. Scott fled out to Whitted. Foster and Hooper re- maining on the bags after the catch. Speaker was out Rixey to Luderus. Foster going to third and Hooper to second. Gainer fled out to Niehoff. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Gardner threw out Stock at first, making a bad throw but Gainer made a nice pickup. Bancroft singled over Scott's head. Paskert flew out to Speaker. Bancroft was out stealing. Thomas to Scott. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Official Attendance.

Sixth Inning—The official at- tendance was announced at 20,306. Lewis was out at first, Bancroft to Luderus. Gardner fouled out to Burns. Bancroft took Barry's grounder and threw wildly past first. Barry went to second. Cady batting for Thomas walked. Niehoff threw out Foster at first. No runs, no hit, one error.

Umpire Klem announced that a runner can take two bases on an overthrow because of the extended field stands. This changed Gar- ner's error in the fourth inning to an error for Hooper instead, as Hooper's throw went to the stands. Cravath fanned for the second time. Cady catching for Boston. Luderus walked but died stealing, Cady to Barry. Whitted flew out to Speaker. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning—Hooper out, Niehoff to Luderus. Scott sent up a high one to Luderus. Bancroft threw out Speaker at first, Bancroft had to take Speaker's hot shot off the ground. No runs, no hits, no errors. Foster robbed Niehoff of a hit and threw him out at first. Burns fouled out to Foster. Rixey singled to left, but Stock fled out to Hooper. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Eighth Inning—Gainer scratch- ed an infield hit which Stock did not field in time and Gainer and Lewis scored on Lewis' home run drive in- to right center stand. Gardner flew out to Paskert. Barry went out by the Bancroft-Luderus route. Cady flew out to Paskert. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Scott tossed out Bancroft at first. Paskert popped out to Gainer. Cravath walked. (Duguey ran for Cravath). Luderus was hit by a pitch- ed ball, Duguey going to second. Foster threw out Whitted at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning—Becker went to right field for Philadelphia. Foster struck out. Hooper poled a home run into the right center bleachers, his second home run of the game. Bancroft threw out Scott. Speaker struck out, but Burns had to throw him out at first. One run, one hit, no errors.

Niehoff fanned. Burns was out to Gainer unassisted. Killifer batting for Rixey was thrown out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

BIG CATTLE SALE.

An enormous cattle sale was clos- ed Wednesday when Kerns Thomp- son purchased between 400 and 500 head of the John L. Persinger cat- tle for export trade.

The cattle will be shipped Friday to New York, and exported from there.
